Strategic Catalyst for Digital Products

m@martin-gude.com · +49 163 6316525 · Berlin

Profile

I wrangle complexity for a living – helping teams shape digital products that don't just tick boxes, but actually make a difference. I've got a background in UX and strategy, but really, I'm in the business of connecting dots – between people, ideas, and the bigger picture. I ask the curly questions, cut through the fluff, and keep things real.

I'm a visionary – not the floaty kind, more the sharp-eyed realist on two wheels. I see where we need to go and help others get there, one clean sprint at a time. I ride road and gravel to clear my head and find direction. Zodiac: Coffee. Ascendant: Apple Pie. I'm fuelled by purpose, pastry and progress. No fluff, no ego, just movement, momentum – and the occasional espresso-fuelled epiphany.
